President's Message

Is it Spring? We have crocus and daffodils blooming through the snow! It is hard to tell. Our motorhome is still covered but the time is drawing close to take the cover off and get ready for the northwest RV season. I know a lot of you are down south and enjoying your RV throughout this winter. That is great and certainly a big plus to owning an RV.

Lynn and I have a trip to Europe planned for late summer to visit our expected great grandson and a long-time friend so we stayed home this winter. We are however, planning to attend all the NWTFC rallies this year. It should be another great year of getting together to share adventures, past, present, and future. This is the 15th year this club has been in existence. Isn't that great? We all know that most teenagers have issues but NWTFC seems to be handling them well, as we keep growing.

The board had a meeting at the end of February to take care of some club business. All officers and committee chairs participated. The issue of the club obtaining an AED is now out for a vote of the membership. I know it has been a long process but this ballot should decide our next move. It was discussed and agreed that if the club is to obtain an AED it should be through a voluntary fundraising effort in order to spare our treasury for club events.

We discussed how to best make use of our outstanding newsletter and the great website to dispense news and information to our membership. These are both great resources available to members as well as non-members. I feel like they have helped keep the club interesting and growing. It was decided to make the newsletter available to the membership on (Continued on page 5)

  Currently one-way ferry costs for $175 CDN for Trek 2480 + Kia Soul + 2 passengers.
- Come early or stay late there is much to do on Vancouver Island.
- Border crossing: For best results never have anything to hide, be honest, and do not volunteer information. See the following link for more info: https://rvlove.com/2017/10/10/tips-smooth-canadian-border-crossing-rv/.

Going north into BC, it is suggested that one carry few groceries (everything in its original packaging), no meat, no fruit, no weapons or firearms. If you have prescription drugs, be sure to have the documentation to bring back what you are carrying. Carrying bear spray is OK, but not personal protection pepper spray (Mace).

Going south, returning to U.S.A., the same basic rules apply.

Contact Peter Sanderson as soon as possible.

the website as a direct link from email sent to each member. This will be the first issue in which this method of distribution will be used. Let us know what you think.

The NWTFC Pay Pal account is now up and running thanks to the efforts of Mary Carlson, Sue Bjornson and Irva Cooper. This allows members to pay their dues online for the first time. We will also use this account if the club decides to obtain an AED. This issue is all new to the club but we elected to designate our webmaster, Mary Carlson to be capable of transferring funds from the club pay pal account to our business account if for some reason the treasurer was not available for an extended period of time.

Jeanette Block and Mary Carlson got together and wrote a job description for the club historian. It is now available on our website. This job description does not include all the things that Jeanette does for the club outside what is expected for the historian's job. Thank you Jeanette!

I am looking forward to seeing many of you this summer at our club rallies. Until then - safe travels,

Mike Ashbridge, President

This year the Trek group and the Safari International group got together at the Trek campsite for the firstever joint Happy Hour / mini-potluck. There was talk of perhaps doing this every year.

The SI group was invited back for Friday's Tech Talk where Solar Al talked about solar power and lithium batteries, Mitch talked about Banks system upgrades, Bret told how to inexpensively convert your Trek to LED interior lighting, and Lee explained how he came by the name "Sparky" (he and the Trek were hit by lightning and damaged while in Rock Springs, WY last summer. Thankfully Dianna was not injured and Lee suffered only relatively minor injuries. The group then discussed ideas for next year's rally.

Friday night saw the whole group together again at the Redlands-sponsored BBQ prior to the "Big Tent" show.

Saturday, some in the Trek group joined in the Safari International annual migration to visit the Desert Bar in the middle of nowhere north of Parker. Next year we may make it a more formal part of the Trek rally for those interested. New NWTFC member Lee Buckley reports that the Desert Bar is a totally solar-powered venue built on the former site of a desert mining complex – they open to standing room only at noon and at sunset, it's all done. Great food, cold beer, and live bands....who could ask for more?

The Sunday morning pancake breakfast was a huge success. Thanks to Fran Zaft and her team of helpers for feeding us all. The donations to it, along with money Bret and Laura Medbury raised from donations for Trek Rally t-shirts and Trek Talks newsletters donated by the late Al Yeast's partner, raised enough money to cover the cost of the breakfast and to purchase a new battery-operated PA system.

NWTFC Website www.nwtfc.com

The Northwest Trek Fun Club (NWTFC) was formed with the idea that Trek owners are people who are unique because the Trek design is quite unique. They are people who like to get out and visit the very beautiful sites and history of North America. However, they do not want to do it in a huge motor home. The Trek design gives us the comforts of home but still is small enough to get into those off-the-beaten-track sites.

NWTFC was established in 2004 and currently has about 80 coach members, including Treks spanning the 1991 Isuzu to the 2008 28RB2 and the 2016 Trek. We pride ourselves in fostering new friendships and knowledge of the Trek. We stress that our club's middle name is F-U-N.

We plan several rallies each year in several states and communicate with our members by email, newsletter, and through the club website. NWTFC territory covers WA, ID, OR, AK, MT, BC, Alberta, Northwest Territories, and the Yukon. All Trek owners, regardless of their home state, are welcome to join or to attend our rallies as guests.

Membership dues are $10 per calendar year. See the website for a membership application.

When your membership is processed, you will be given a password access to the secure Members Only page of the NWTFC website.

NWTFC is a chapter of FMCA and very closely associated with SAFARI International.
